

Dept. of Psychology

Course outcome

B. A. Psychology 3 year (Six semester) Degree Course

Srmester 1

Foundations of psychology, Perception, Learning and Motivation, Memory, Models of memory, functioning brain, nervous systems, Endocrine System,

Semester II

Personality, Intelligence, Enhancing individual's potential, motivation, thinking, Statistical Methods for Psychological Research

Semester III

Research in Psychology- Sampling, Experimental & non-experimental methods; Early Schools of Psychology, Positivist Orientation, Psychoanalytic and Humanistic, social behavior, Social Interaction and Influence, Group dynamics and Inter-group relations,

Semester IV

Statistical methods for Psychological Research - Probability Curve, Correlation, Hypothesis testing; Developmental Psychology; Social Psychology - Life Span Development, Domains of Human Development; Applied Social Psychology - Crime and Criminals, Social Inequity, Domestic Violence

Semester V

Psychological Disorder - Clinical States, Developmental Disorders; Organizational Psychology - Work motivation, Dynamics of Organizational Behavior, Community Psychology Or Educational Psychology Or Sports Psychology; Positive Psychology Or Psychology And Social Issues Or Psychological Assessment

Semester VI

Psychological Disorder; Counselling Psychology, Health Psychology Or Human Development Or Psychology of Normal Adaptation; Human Resource Management Or Environmental Psychology Or Geriatric Psychology